

NEWS TERSELY TOLD.

The amount of bullion taken into the Bank of England today was 10,000 pounds. The sum of 380,000 pounds was withdrawn for shipment to South America.

The president has appointed John H. McCall to be federal judge for the western district of Tennessee at Memphis to succeed the late Judge E. H. Hammond.

In the Marcum-Hargis damage suit at Winchester, Ky., Hon. C. J. Bronckton, made the final speech in the case, and it will probably go to the jury this afternoon.

The war department at Washington today assigned Lieutenant General Miles, U. S. A., retired, as a member of the staff of Governor Douglass, of Massachusetts.

It is considered probable as the result of a telegram received in New Orleans from New today that the local cotton exchange will take steps to put a stop to all "curb trading."

The steamship Olympia will leave Portland next week with a cargo of contraband destined for the Russian army at Vladivostok. The cargo will consist of oats and canned beef.

Ex-Mayor Joseph Vilas, of Manitowish, Wis., aged 73 years, committed suicide today by firing a bullet into his brain. Mr. Vilas had suffered for years from an incurable disease.

Chaplain Joseph F. McGrath has been dismissed from the United States navy by order of the president. He was tried by courtmartial on the information and charges of scandalous conduct.

A special from Eureka, Utah, says that the town is in danger of being destroyed by fire. The Eureka hotel has already been burned, and as the water mains are frozen up it is impossible to make any headway against the flames.

Matthew Connors fired three shots at his wife and then shot himself through the head at Seattle, Wash. His wife received but a slight wound. Connors lived until he reached the hospital. Family troubles was the cause.

The city hall of Springfield, Mass., valued at more than $50,000, was completely destroyed by fire in less than an hour today. There were probably 50 people in the building, and the flames worked so rapidly that there were many narrow escapes, but it is believed that all got out.

The directors of the Pacific railway from Valparaiso to Buenos Ayres have, according to a dispatch from London, authorized $10,000,000 of new capital. The chairman said it will be an excellent thing to secure Argentine shareholders and suggested reserving a part of the issue.

The expulsion of Alfred A. Damar, a member of the New York Consolidated Exchange, is announced. Mr. Damar was found guilty of violating the rules of the exchange by the board of managers yesterday. He was suspended some few weeks ago, and later made a settlement offer to his creditors.

Ellie C. Taylor, a character actor, died suddenly yesterday at his hotel in Allentown, Pa. He took part in last night's performance although suffering from a severe cold. After retiring, pneumonia developed and resulted fatally. Taylor has been traveling all over the earth with theatrical companies.

Bought Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and Sent it to Friends.

Mr. F. W. J. Fletcher, a druggist in Victoria, Australia, says: "A customer of mine was so pleased with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which she had used for her children when suffering from colds and croup, that during a fortnight's time she obtained at my shop, nine bottles, which she sent to her friends in different parts of the State, telling them how much good it had done and advised them to give it a trial." For sale by all druggists.

All Appointments Made.
Washington, Jan. 9.—Secretary Murphy, of the Isthmian canal commission, today announced that all positions under the commission which, by executive order are exempt from civil service examination, have been filled, and that no additional appointments can be made in any department of the commission except through the civil service commission, where applicants desiring to qualify for appointment should apply for information.

Cured Lumbago.
A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 5, 1903: "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of cured soldiers." The Old and St. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

English Heir a Suicide.

Atlantic City, N. J., Jan. 9.—F. J. Outram, head of a firm of London solicitors, has positively identified by photographs and police description C. V. Turner, who killed himself at the Hotel Wilshire in July, 1903, as a member of a well known and extremely wealthy English family who was cast off after he had dissipated a fortune, and who disappeared from England, leaving his wife and two children. Turner had since fallen heir to 100,000 pounds sterling, and the lawyer was searching for him, supposing him to be alive.

Found a Cure for Indigestion.

I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion and find that they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried and I have used many different remedies. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to now.—Geo. W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

Election Indictments Quashed.

Denver, Col., Jan. 9.—District Judge John I. Mullens has granted nearly all the motions as to quash indictments against election officials brought last April by a grand jury. Those officers served in the charter elections of December 8, 1903. They were charged with corruption and failure to perform the duties of their office. This election being a special one, it was claimed it was not governed by the laws regulating a regular election, and this contention was upheld by the court.

The December statement of the London Board of Trade shows increases of 2,628,500 in imports, and $17,298,000 in exports. DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Atlanta Can't Get University.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 9.—Chancery court of appeals of Tennessee decided that the southwestern Presbyterian university cannot be removed from Clarksville, Tenn. There has long been an effort by the Presbyterians of Atlanta to have the university removed to that city. It is probable the case will be carried to the supreme court and possibly to the supreme court of the United States.
